D ear delegates,

my name is Riccardo Leoni, Secretary General of IMUN Venezia 2023.

It is my duty and honor to welcome you to the beginning of this amazing experience. IMUN is something more than a mere school project; it is a journey directly into the dynamics of the greatest international organization of the world: the United Nations. This journey will allow you to have a taste of the Great Game of diplomacy and international relations, a unique opportunity to experience the life of a UN delegate at the General Assembly. In such a time of struggle, crises and war, the only way to create a better tomorrow is to understand today's events and implications. It will also allow you to develop your soft skills, fundamental instruments of the leaders of the future. You will hold speeches, write resolutions, conduct negotiations and even discuss to achieve your objectives. I recall when I was a delegate like you, I remember the excitement of preparing a position paper, documenting my country's perspective, confronting with allies and rivals, but also creating life-long bonds with incredible people.

For the ones at their first experience: be ready for something incredible. For those who already experienced what IMUN can be: welcome back.

This is only the beginning, I will await you at the end of this journey.

Pick your placards, write down your position papers and suit up, IMUN is about to start!

Riccardo Leoni
